

Himalayan Makers Guild

Membership Agreement 2017 – 2018

1. Attend every activity, or notify a club leader 1 day in advance if you will be absent
2. Do any tasks that are assigned as homework
3. Arrive on time to your assigned session
4. Present your ideas to the group in English
5. Be respectful of the ideas and opinions of others

If you break your agreement two times, you will have one more chance to show their commitment to the club by performing some task defined by the club leaders. If you choose not to do that task, you will lose your membership in the Himalayan Makers Guild.

If you break your agreement a third time, you will lose your membership in the Himalayan Makers Guild.

If you lose your membership, you can reapply during the next membership application period.

I (name, admission number) _____, understand the expectations and agree to uphold them as a member of the Himalayan Makers Guild.
